

Speech of the head of the Lebanese Red Cross Dr. Antoine Zoughbi during his meeting with the Armed Forces Commander General Joseph Aoun

The LAF have accustomed is that it does not spare any way in sacrificing their blood in the fields of honor in order to preserve the nation. Moreover, they preserve citizens even during days of peace. The Lebanese Red Cross is proud to stand by you for better and for worse and thanks to your directions, we will form together a web of comprehension, cooperation and health for citizens in Lebanon.
